

Symposium Schedule

Main organiser: Sam Bennett (Faculty of English)

Co-organisers: Artur Lipiński

Research group on 'Populist political communication'
(Faculty of Political Science & Journalism)

| | |
|-------------|--|
| 9:30-9:45 | Welcome from the Deans of WA & WNPiD Introduction to the symposium - Sam Bennett & Artur Lipinski |
| 9:45-11:45 | Session 1: 'New' issues in Polish politics (Chair – Aleks Szczerbiak) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Prof Piotr Cap (University of Łódź) - Anti-immigration discourses of PiS • Artur Lipiński (Adam Mickiewicz University) - Populist political communication in social media: structural and discursive dimensions • Sam Bennett (Adam Mickiewicz University) - The Environment as an emerging discourse in Polish far-right politics |
| 11:45-12:00 | Refreshments |
| 12:00-13:30 | Session 2: Uses of History in Polish political communication (Chair - Piotr Cap) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Daniel Tilles (Jagiellonian University) - The struggle over memory: Historical policy in contemporary Poland • Marta Gruszecka (University of Warsaw) - Uses of representations of collective trauma and commemoration as means of legitimization in populist discourse(s) |
| 13:30-14:30 | Lunch – Collegium Biologicum |
| 14:30-16:00 | Session 3: Poland and the wider world: trends and relationships (Chair - Sam Bennett) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Aleks Szczerbiak (University of Sussex) - 'Europe' as an issue in Polish political discourse • Lukasz Wojtkowski (Nicolaus Copernicus University) - In search of the mediatization: Patterns of right-wing shifts in USA and Poland |
| 16:00-17:00 | Closed session for participants: Discussion, wrap-up & publication plans |
| 19:00 | Workshop dinner – w Bramie (Ul. Fredry 7) |